ASO Chorus Turns 50

OCT 15 | Thu: 8pm
Donald Runnicles & Norman Mackenzie, conductors | ASO Chorus
Celebrate 50 years of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra Chorus with Principal Guest Conductor Donald Runnicles and Director of Choruses Norman Mackenzie as they lead a program featuring selections from choral favorites such as Verdi’s Requiem, Orff’s Carmina burana, Brahms’ A German Requiem and more. Since its founding in 1970 by Music Director Robert Shaw, the Chorus has grown to international acclaim. The ASO Chorus remains as beloved and revered today, a legend 50 years in the making.

Symphony Gala Concert

SEP 12 | Sat: 7pm
BERNSTEIN: Symphonic Dances from West Side Story
RACHMANINOV: Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini
Robert Spano, conductor | Daniil Trifonov, piano
The Atlanta Symphony Orchestra celebrates the indelible legacy of Music Director Robert Spano at the 2020 ASO Gala. The evening features special guest pianist Daniil Trifonov performing Rachmaninov’s Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini. For full Gala package details please visit aso.org/gala.

Yo-Yo Ma

APR 18 | Sun: 7pm
BORODIN: “Polovtsian Dances” from Prince Igor
BORODIN: Symphony No. 2
SHOSTAKOVICH: Cello Concerto No. 1
Robert Spano, conductor | Yo-Yo Ma, cello
The inimitable Yo-Yo Ma returns to perform one of the most iconic pieces of the 20th century cello repertoire, Shostakovich’s Cello Concerto No. 1. This masterpiece of emotional clarity and formal balance highlights a cello part that is at once deeply dramatic and technically challenging, uniquely suited to the masterful abilities of Yo-Yo Ma.

A note of gratitude

One of my life’s greatest privileges has been to be Music Director of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra for the last 20 years. The Orchestra’s outstanding success — exemplified by numerous Grammy® Awards and critically acclaimed performances at Lincoln Center, Kennedy Center and Carnegie Hall — is thanks not only to the talents of every ASO musician but also the support of our audiences. Our mission is to bring people together through the transformative power of music, and the passion you have shared with us is inspiring.

In my final season I am looking forward to every performance. Some of the highlights will surely be celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the ASO Chorus, with performances of Mendelssohn’s Elijah and a new oratorio by Jonathan Leshnoff, Opening Weekend with Gil Shaham, an evening of music by Franz Liszt with our dear friend Jean-Yves Thibaudet, and returning to our stage such great artists as Yo-Yo Ma, Yefim Bronfman, Paža Mužijević and Garrick Ohlsson. We also have an evening featuring music of the Atlanta School of Composers — Jennifer Higdon, Michael Gandolfi, Krists Auznieks and our own Michael Kurth — and the Gala with Daniil Trifonov performing Rachmaninov’s Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini. We’ll close the season with Mahler’s Third Symphony. With its profound expression of love, I can think of no more fitting work with which to say thank you for 20 blessed years with the ASO.

Even as I reflect on my tenure here, I also look forward with anticipation and excitement to the next chapters in the ASO’s unfolding story. With these brilliant musicians and our devoted listeners, it will surely be amazing.

Sincerely,

Robert Spano

SEASON 20
Opening Weekend
SEP 24-26 | Thu/Sat: 8pm | PREMIUM
CHRISTOPHER THEOFANIDIS: Rainbow Body
KORNGOLD: Violin Concerto
SIBELIUS: Symphony No. 2
Robert Spano, conductor | Gil Shaham, violin
Robert Spano opens his 20th and final season as Music Director of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra with Grammy® Award-winning violinist Gil Shaham performing Korngold's cinematic Violin Concerto. The evening opens with the exuberant Rainbow Body by Christopher Theofanidis and finishes with Sibelius’ majestic Symphony No. 2.

Mendelssohn’s Elijah
NOV 19/21 | Thu/Sat: 8pm
MENDELSSOHN: Elijah
Robert Spano, conductor | Jessica Rivera, soprano
Kelley O’Connor, mezzo-soprano | Thomas Cooley, tenor
Nmon Ford, baritone | ASO Chorus
Robert Spano leads Felix Mendelssohn’s epic portrait of the prophet Elijah. Standing at the cusp of the classical-romantic historical divide, Mendelssohn revives the baroque oratorio form of Bach and Handel for this stirring choral masterpiece.

Symphonic Dances
MAR 4/6 | Thu/Sat: 8pm
PROKOFIEV: Piano Concerto No. 3
RACHMANINOV: Symphonic Dances
Eun Sun Kim, conductor | Alexander Gavrylyuk, piano
Sergei Rachmaninov’s Symphonic Dances was his last major composition, revealing a nostalgic embrace of Russian romanticism. Conductor Eun Sun Kim makes her ASO debut in this concert with pianist Alexander Gavrylyuk in Prokofiev’s Piano Concerto No. 3, one of the most popular concertos of the 20th century.

Remarkable Ray Chen Returns
APR 8/10 | Thu/Sat: 8pm
HANNAH KENDALL: weaves flowers and leaves
SAINTSAËNS: Violin Concerto No. 3
BARTÓK: Concerto for Orchestra
Shiyeon Sung, conductor | Ray Chen, violin
Violinist Ray Chen performs Saint-Saëns’ Violin Concerto No. 3, a showcase for violin that alternates fiery virtuosity with pastoral lyricism. The program includes Béla Bartók’s subversive Concerto for Orchestra, and the U.S. premiere of Hannah Kendall’s weaves flowers and leaves. Conductor Shiyeon Sung makes her ASO debut.

Augustin Hadelich
MAY 6/8 | Thu/Sat: 8pm
ANNA CLYNE: New Work
Britten: Violin Concerto
VAUGHAN WILLIAMS: Symphony No. 6
Andrew Manze, conductor | Augustin Hadelich, violin
This program features music from two British composers writing in the shadow of war. Grammy® Award-winning violinist Augustin Hadelich returns to perform Benjamin Britten’s Violin Concerto, a tribute to British soldiers who died fighting fascist forces in the Spanish Civil War. Vaughan Williams’ intense Sixth Symphony is widely seen as a response to the horrors of World War II.

Majestic Masterpieces –
Experience the majesty of the ASO with epic masterpieces like Sibelius’ Symphony No. 2, Berlioz’s Symphonie fantastique, Rachmaninov’s Symphonic Dances, Bartók’s Concerto for Orchestra, Vaughan Williams’ Symphony No. 6, and Mendelssohn’s mighty Elijah with an all-star cast. We’ll be joined by some of our favorite guests, including violinists Gil Shaham, Ray Chen and Augustin Hadelich.
Heroic Women — Celebrate heroes both legendary and modern as we dance with Carmen, dream with Sleeping Beauty, savor music from composers Galina Ustvolskaya, Victoria Borissova-Ollas and Gabriela Lena Frank, and be thrilled by guests Baiba Skride, Nathalie Stutzmann, Naomi Sato, and the inimitable Hilary Hahn. And be moved by Mahler's poignant love song to his wife Alma, the exquisite Adagietto from his Symphony No. 5.

Debussy’s La mer
OCT 8-10 | Thu/Sat: 8pm
MOZART: Idomeneo Overture
MOZART: Piano Concerto No. 16
TAKEMITSU: Ceremonial: An Autumn Ode
DEBUSSY: La mer
Kazuki Yamada, conductor | Louis Lortie, piano
Naomi Sato, shō
Kazuki Yamada makes his Atlanta debut conducting Debussy’s beloved La mer, three symphonic sketches of the sea. The ASO welcomes pianist Louis Lortie in Mozart’s intricate Piano Concerto No. 16, and Naomi Sato in Tōru Takemitsu’s Ceremonial: An Autumn Ode. Sato plays the shō, a traditional Japanese wind instrument.

Sleeping Beauty
DEC 3-5 | Thu/Sat: 8pm
USTVOLSKAYA: Symphonic Poem No. 2
VICTORIA BORISOVA-OLLAS: A Portrait of a Lady by Swan Lake
TCHAIKOVSKY: Selections from Sleeping Beauty
Andrey Boreyko, conductor | Baiba Skride, violin
Tchaikovsky’s Sleeping Beauty highlights an evening of Russian music in a newly designed sequence by guest conductor Andrey Boreyko. The U.S. premiere of Borisova-Ollas’ A Portrait of a Lady by Swan Lake echoes the classic Tchaikovsky ballet. In this stirring portrait, the main character is depicted through the solo violin playing of Latvian violinist Baiba Skride.

Coucheron Performs Mozart
FEB 4-6 | Thu/Sat: 8pm
DVORÁK: Slavonic Dances Nos. 1, 2 and 8
MOZART: Violin Concerto No. 3
BRAHMS: Symphony No. 2
Nathalie Stutzmann, conductor | David Coucheron, violin
ASO Concertmaster David Coucheron shines in Mozarts dancelike Violin Concerto No. 3. Written during his prodigious late teens, the concerto is a delightful display of Mozart’s budding genius. Under the baton of conductor Nathalie Stutzmann, the evening also features Brahms’ Symphony No. 2, one of the composer’s most exuberant works.

Mahler Symphony No. 5
MAR 11/13 | Thu/Sat: 8pm
MOZART: Piano Concerto No. 21
MAHLER: Symphony No. 5
Edward Gardner, conductor | Cédric Tiberghien, piano
Mahler described his Fifth Symphony as “this foaming, roaring, raging sea of sound.” We welcome back guest conductor Edward Gardner to navigate us through the turbulent waters of this colossal masterpiece. Cédric Tiberghien makes his ASO debut with Mozart’s famous Piano Concerto No. 21.

Chichester Psalms
APR 22/24 | Thu/Sat: 8pm
BERNSTEIN: Chichester Psalms
JONATHAN LEHNFRIED: The Sacrifice of Isaac
Robert Spano, conductor | John Tessier, tenor | Russell Braun, baritone | ASO Chorus
Robert Spano leads the incomparable ASO Chorus in Leonard Bernstein’s choral masterpiece Chichester Psalms, a bold and eloquent celebration of universal brotherhood. The concert also features the world premiere of Jonathan Lehnfrid’s The Sacrifice of Isaac, an ASO commission.

ADAM SCHOENBERG: Concerto for Orchestra
BEETHOVEN: Piano Concerto No. 3
Robert Spano, conductor | Yefim Bronfman, piano
One of the greatest pianists of our time, Yefim Bronfman performs Beethoven’s Piano Concerto No. 3, a piece that honors the influence of Mozart while displaying the audacity and fervor that would define Beethoven’s career. The program begins with the world premiere of Adam Schoenberg’s Concerto for Orchestra, a piece commissioned by the ASO.

Resurrection
MAR 18/20 | Thu/Sat: 8pm
MAHLER: Symphony No. 2, “Resurrection”
Donald Runnicles, conductor | Leah Crocetto, soprano
Elizabeth DeLhong, mezzo-soprano | ASO Chorus
Gustav Mahler’s Second Symphony captures a timeless narrative of tension and struggle, death and redemption. The ASO Chorus joins soloists Leah Crocetto and Elizabeth DeLhong for a triumphant finale that dramatically closes out this epic work and lends the Symphony its subtitle: “Resurrection.”

Brahms and Tchaikovsky
APR 15/17 | Thu/Sat: 8pm
BRAHMS: Violin Concerto
TCHAIKOVSKY: Symphony No. 4
Robert Spano, conductor | Robert McDuffie, violin
In a program of late-romantic music that is both dramatic and contemplative, renowned violinist Robert McDuffie plays Brahms’ only violin concerto, one of the great concerti of the German tradition. Tchaikovsky’s Fourth is a dynamic meditation on the notion of fate in the human condition.

Rach Three
JUN 3/5 | Thu/Sat: 8pm | PREMIUM
RIMSKY-KORSAKOV: Scheherazade
RACHMANINOV: Piano Concerto No. 3
Robert Spano, conductor | Garrick Ohlsson, piano
A night of musical fireworks with celebrated pianist Garrick Ohlsson performing Sergei Rachmaninov’s Piano Concerto No. 3, one of the most technically challenging works in the piano repertoire. The evening begins with Rimsky-Korsakov’s evocative Scheherazade, a dazzling work of orchestral color based on the Middle Eastern folktale Arabian Nights.

Storytellers — Come be swept away by some of history’s greatest musical stories, including Romeo & Juliet, Pictures at an Exhibition, Faust and Scheherazade, and visits from some of our favorite musical storytellers, including Jean-Yves Thibaudet, Yefim Bronfman, Robert McDuffie and Garrick Ohlsson. And don’t miss Mahler’s transcendent “Resurrection” Symphony and Tchaikovsky’s powerful Fourth Symphony.

ASO.ORG
Made in the USA — Show your true colors with music from legendary American composers John Williams, Aaron Copland and William Dawson, modern favorites Michael Gandolfi and Aaron Kernis, along with newcomers Valerie Coleman and Derrick Spiva, Jr.; as well as “New World” Symphony composer and part-time American Antonín Dvořák. Beloved Music Director Robert Spano celebrates his 20-year tenure with Mahler’s colossal Third Symphony.

STRAVINSKY: Petrushka (1947)

Donald Runnicles, conductor | James Ehnes, violin

Grammy® Award-winning violinist James Ehnes performs Saint-Sæns’ “Egyptian” Piano Concerto No. 5, a unique and fascinating piece incorporating traditional musical ideas from Egypt and the Middle East. In contrast, Petrushka was one of three ballets that catapulted Stravinsky to stardom and secured his place among the most influential composers of the 20th century.

Mahler Three

JUN 10/12 | ThuSat: 8pm | PREMIUM
MAHLER: Symphony No. 3

Robert Spano, conductor | Kelley O’Connor, mezzo-soprano

Gwendolyn Young Singers | Women of the ASO Chorus

A masterpiece of epic proportions, Mahler’s Symphony No. 3 is one of the largest-scale symphonic works ever produced. Requiring an augmented orchestra, choruses of women and children, and a mezzo-soprano soloist, the grandeur of the work is meant to depict the full scope of the natural world, a proper culmination of the great Maestro Spano’s 20-year tenure with the ASO.
Sensational Seong-Jin Cho
OCT 17 | Sat: 8pm
