Romantic Era's Greatest Hits: Passionate masterpieces from Ravel, Tchaikovsky, Berlioz and Debussy, and the defining work of the era, Beethoven's almighty Ninth. Runnicles invites us to France, the Grammy Award-winning Viola Concerto by Atlanta School of Composers favorite Jennifer Higdon and our own David Coucheron dazzles with Symphonie espagnole.

"This will be our reply...to make music more intensely, more beautifully..." Bernstein's timeless words echo in some of music's most eloquent responses to war in epic works of Britten, Shostakovich, Elgar and Bernstein. Plus not-to-be-missed classics: Rachmaninov's Symphonic Dances, Mozart's Jupiter and Beethoven's Pastoral.
